

Dutchess County Scottish Society

Poughkeepsie, New York

The Dutchess County Scottish Society extends to you a hearty welcome to attend its meetings, which are held at the Freedom Plains Presbyterian Church, Route 55 Poughkeepsie, New York. Meetings are held on the second Monday in September and the first Monday of each month from October through June.

The society was formed for the promotion of friendship and goodwill among its members, and for the preservation and cultivation of the traditions, literature, poetry, songs and music of Scotland.

The meetings are purely social and are open to all who are Scottish, by birth, by descent or by marriage. Membership dues are $10.00 yearly, with a $10.00 initiation fee.

Should you desire to join us and become a member, kindly fill in the following application and bring it to any meeting.
